Local Department.

Notice Sellick's new ad.

Our correspondence is unavoidably crowded out this week.

He had not been drinking, it hurt him to ride, that was all.

Prof. Jennings will furnish teachers with paper for examinations.

Mrs. Caroline Wood of Jackson, is visiting at Mrs. Mort Buck's.

Mrs. H. K. Odell has just purchased a beautiful line of millinery.

Remember the republican mass-meeting at Bangor on Friday of this week.

Prof. C. E. Hutchins has been engaged as chorister at the Disciple church.

Bro. Johnson of the Decatur Republican, made us a pleasant visit last Friday.

The different religious societies are expected to establish eating-stands on Monday next.

The Rev. Democratic Deyo addressed the fusionists at the Court house last Monday evening.

We are informed that hereafter no visitors will be received at the county house except on Thursdays.

George Roberts has quit the show business, and gone to work again with his father in the barber-shop.

Johnnie Bryar, who was quite sick at Grand Rapids last week, has so far recovered as to be able to return home last Monday.

Citizens along the route of the parade are invited to decorate their residences and places of business, and to illuminate them in the evening.

If Monday is a pleasant day, there will be the largest crowd here that has been in town since 1868. Everything depends on the weather.

Wise & Smith are making their patent buckwheat flour at the rate of 100 bushels of buckwheat per day. They have already ground 2,000 bushels.

The great fusion mass-meeting at Bangor last Tuesday, was a slim affair. Hurd, the defeated free-trader, did not prove to be a very great attraction.

Chas. E. Galligan wants to pay for information concerning two old sheep and 15 lambs, that are missing from his farm. The old sheep had rings in their ears.

Died, at the residence of J. W. Emery, Esq., in this village, on Wednesday, the 22d inst., Mr. Floyd Smith, a brother of Mrs.
Emery. He was buried on the 24th inst. in the township of Porter, in the Walden cemetery.

Some of the democrats complain because the republican mass-meeting is to be held on Monday, giving them no time to hold a subsequent blow-out. Never mind, gentlemen, your party will come in triumph on Tuesday, as usual.

T. Carman of Palmyra, N. Y., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Palmer, of this village.
Mr. Carman is a good republican, and expresses his opinion that New York will give her electoral vote to Blaine by 50,000 plurality.

Boynton and Gentry gave one of the finest exhibitions at the roller rink last Friday and Saturday evenings that we ever witnessed.
Mr. Gentry deserves especial mention for the ease and grace with which he performed his feats.

The regular examination of teachers will be held at the high school rooms in this place on Friday and Saturday next, beginning at 9 o'clock sharp. All applicants for certificates must present themselves on Friday, as no examination will begin on Saturday.

Rumors have been circulated that Col.
Todd has promised to make certain appointments in case of his election. We are authorized by him to say that he has made no pledges to anyone, and that it is his intention, if the people choose him for sheriff, to occupy the jail himself.

We devote a large portion of our space, this week, to the discussion of political matters. Presidential election occurs but once in four years, and we feel called upon to do what we can for the success of the republican cause. We promise our readers that the other departments of our paper shall be made better and more interesting in the future.

Notwithstanding the snow storm of Thursday last, the republican meeting at Hartford was a success. Messrs. Luce and Burrows addressed a large audience in Reynolds' hall.
Mr. Luce was the principal speaker and delivered an excellent address. The young ladies and gentlemen from Lawrence are deserving of much credit for their attendance, in spite of the inclement weather. The Hartford cornet band and Paw Paw campaign glee club furnished the music.

By vote of Paw Paw Grange at its last session the following subjects were made a special order for discussion on Friday evening, Oct. 31st, when it is hoped there will be a full attendance of the members: "Shall we vote for the proposed constitutional amendments fixing the salary of members of the legislature at $700 for each regular session and $100 for an extra session, and prohibiting the use of free passes on any railroad during their term of office?" Also, "Can a patron honestly vote for a man for office who has procured his nomination by dishonest means?"

The sad intelligence has reached us from Duluth, Minn., of the sudden death from heart disease of Mrs. Minnie Cullyford, nee Celver, second daughter of Col. J. B. and Sarah Woodman Celver, formerly of this place. She spent a part of the summer of 1883 with her many warm friends and relatives in this place and vicinity; going back to her northern home, she left none but pleasant memories with us. She was married last December, to Thos. Cullyford of Duluth. Lovely and beloved, we had hoped for her a long and happy life. But God's ways are not our ways, and one more link is added to the chain that draws our hearts and our hopes towards the home where partings and tears are unknown. E. H. H.

R. W. Vaughn, fusion candidate for register of deeds, is circulating a handbill throughout the county pledging himself that, if elected to the office of register of deeds, the practice of buying and selling tax titles in the county office shall be stopped. At the only county office where such practice prevails is the office of county treasurer, in which such sales are made pursuant to law, it is difficult to see what control Mr. Vaughn could exercise over the matter, even if elected, which he certainly will not be. If he means by his circular to cast any reflections on the way the office has been managed by the present efficient register, Mr. S. P. Wilson, he reckons without his host. Mr. W. has neither bought nor sold a tax title during his term of office, although he would have the same right to do so as any other citizen would have. The people know Mr.
W. to be a capable, gentlemanly official, and will see that he is returned for another two years. The saving clause, "if elected," was very judiciously used by the fusion candidate.

Registration.

The board of registration for the township of Paw Paw, will be in session at the office of the township clerk—upper rooms of Covert & Bartram's store—on Saturday, Nov. 1st, from eight o'clock in the morning to five o'clock in the evening. No names can be received after the latter hour.
